AMERICANS CROSS THE MARNE

U. S. ARMOR MAKING SWING NORTHWARD IN DRIVE UPON REICH

WEST OF SEINE 20,000 GERMANS BEING SLAUGHTERED IN NEW TRAP

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press War Editor.

Plunging across the historic Marne, American armor today swung a great attacking arc against German retreat routes to the Reich, and along the Seine the whole Allied onslaught was wheeling northward from four deepened and strengthened American, British and Canadian bridgeheads.

West of the Seine 20,000 Germans were floundering in a newly established Allied trap and were being slaughtered by ground and air bombardment.

The U. S. Third Army, stabbing ten Miles beyond Lagny to a Marne river loop 23 miles east of Paris, esized Meaux on the north bank of the river, and for the first time in this war Americans were fighting on a great World War I battleground—the scene of the kaiser's dashed 1914 hopes of taking Paris, which were smashed in the first battle of the Marne. Seden, great battlefront in 1940 and in 1870, was 105 miles away.

Third Army Columns.

Third Army tanks plunged beyond Meaux, and to the south, beyond Troyesf, on the American right flank, another column stabbed toward Vitry, less than 100 miles from the German border.

Pilots returning from raids on Germany reported the Germans were pouring reinforcements and supplies into France from the Low Countries, and Mosquito bombers harassed these operations.

The new trap was sprung on an estimated 20,000 Germans in three loops west of the Seine river in the Rouen area. German troops were attempting madly to escape across the Seine to join the flight to the east.

Marseille Situation.

In the South of France, as resistance on the waterfront for the great port of Marseilles, gradually was being annihiliated, Maj. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's Seventh Army smashed into Montelimar, in the heart of the Rhone valley, 100 miles to the north. Air assaults ahead of them were shattering German hopes for a flight north through the flat country.

Berlin said the Russians had reached the border of Hungary at one of the Carpathian passes and that a counterattack was in progress. The vague wording indicated the advance had been through Romania to the edge of Transylvania.

PICKETT DEFEATED PATTON IN SEVENTH CONGRESS DISTRICT

SELLERS AND SIMPSON WIN FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, SUPREME COURT

DALLAS, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Texas voters today had sent one new representative to congress, reelected two others and decided two state races as the result of a second democratic primary devoid of any national issues.

Less than 30,000 votes were still out as the Texas Election Bureau turned in its final report on Saturday's run-off primary, listing returns from 248 of the state's 254 counties including 146 complete and 36 which held no election.

The labor issue had been frequently injected into the congressional and state races, but C. A. McKeak, regional director of the CIO political action committee said there was no state political action committee in Texas and that the national committee had not asked the defeat of any candidate in state races.

In the three congressional contests, District Attorney Tom Pickett, Palestine, defeated Rep. Nat Patton, Crockett, in the 7th district; Rep. J. J. Mansfield, Columbus, chairman of the House Rivers and Harbors committee who had represented the 9th district for 27 years, led former State Senator L. J. Sulak, LaGrange; and Rep. Sam Russell, Stephenville, defeated former Congressman Clyde L. Garrett, Eastland. Patton has served ten years in the house.

Sellers Wins.

Incumbent Grover Sellers defeated Jesse Martin of Fort Worth in the state's attorney general's race, and Col Gordon Simpson, Tyler, ousted Richard Critz, Austin, incumbent, in the runoff for associate justice of the state supreme court.

Pickett polled 20,054 votes to Patton's 15,514, the election bureau listing all 12 counties in the district reporting, with 8 complete.

Mansfield led Sulak with a vote of 13,772 to 12,875, 15 of 15 counties having reported, nine complete.

Russell was leading Garrett by a vote of 16,100 to 12,760, in 11 of 12 counties, eight complete.

Sellers polled 253,206 votes to Martin's 201,756 and Simpson had 260,298 votes to 195,745 for Critz.

AWARDED PURPLE HEART—Staff Sgt Paul Bell, Third Armored Division, wounded in action in France June 30, has been awarded the Purple Heart Decoration, according to information received by his wife, Mrs. Helen Bell, Frost. Upon discharge from the hospital he was promoted to the rank of First Sergeant. Entering the service in June 1941, he has been overseas since Sept. 1, 1943. Sgt. Bell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bell, Corsicana, Route No. 4. He attended the Dawson high school.

DONNELL, BRADLEY, MEGARITY, GILLEN ELECTED TO OFFICE

COMPLETE UNOFFICIAL RETURNS ANNOUNCED FOR RUN-OFF PRIMARY

Navarro county voters Saturday selected J. R. Donnell as representative in the Legislature, George T. Bradley of Kerens as county treasurer, Jack Megarity as commisioner in Precinct 1 and Drew Gillen (re-elected) in Precinct 4 as county commissioner, according to complete but unofficial returns tabulated by the Corsicana Daily Sun Saturday night on the run-off primary.

Donnell received 2771 votes to 2450 votes by Hayden Paschall, justice of the peace, Precinct 1, Place 1, to determine the succesor of Pat Geraughty, not a candidate for reelection.

Bradley Elected

George T. Bradley of Kerens defeated Dr J. Wilson David of Corsicana approximately two to one when he garnered 3501 votes to 1764 for Dr. David. Dr. David was appointed to the treasurership when Miss Alma Armstrong resigned early in the year by the commissioners court and donated his salary to the health unit as did Miss Armstrong prior to her resignation.

Jack Megarity, former commissioner, defeated Jim Taylor, incumbent, seeking a third term, 1607 to 1076 votes, for Precinct 1.

Drew Gillen of Blooming Grove won a third term as commissioner in Precinct 4 with 730 votes. W. K. (Kirk) Barnes, also of Blooming Grove, garnered 565 votes.

Run-off elections in a couple of precincts for chairman resulted in ties. A. K. Harris and Jack Steele received 12 each for chairman in Winkler, while H. R. Fluker and C. L. Burks garnered 22 each for chairman in Roane.

Purdon First to Report

Purdon was the first box to be reported—exactly at 7 p. m.

Thirty precincts had reported twenty-four minutes after the polls closed and 37 were received at the end of a half hour.

Forty-two boxes were reported by 8 a. m. Rodney, in Southwest Navarro county, was the last precinct to be received.

Returns from the county, precinct and state races were announced over a public address system and posted on the door at the Daily Sun office, and were broadcast from the Sun Building by Radio Station KAND election night.

An unusual feature was the returns from Spring Hill. Donnell

AMERICAN TROOPS REACH RHONE RIVER VALLEY IN QUICK TIME

AT LEAST 50,000 ENEMY FRONT LINE TROOPS KNOCKED OUT IN SOUTH

By GEORGE TUCKER.

ROME, Aug. 28.—(AP)—More than half of all German soldiers garrisoning Southern France prior to the Allied landings are believed to have been killed, wounded of captured in less than two weeks, and today the tattered remnants were fighting a frantic battle in the Rhone valley to escape a trap.

ROME, Aug. 28.—(AP)—American troops have reached the Rhone valley north of Montelimar, 100 airline miles north of Marseille, after a march of 200 miles in two days, and have cut off the line of retreat of the German 11th armored division and other troops to the south, field dispatches announced today.

At least 50,000 enemy front line troops were estimated to have been knocked out of the war in the invasion of Southern France to date.

The German 11-th division was being pressed from the south by other American units, dispatches said, and was being harrassed by maquis in the hills to the west and cut up by artillery fire from the east.

The Germans were making a fierce effort to cut a way through to Valence, 25 miles north of Montelimar, it was said, but the Americans were confident of their ability to crush the breakout attempts.

The Germans were confronted by the additional menace of "Butler's task force"—the mobile column commanded by Brig. Gen. Frederick Butler, which several days ago reached Grenoble, 70 miles northeast of Montelimar, and whose activities have not been reported since.

The Germans were attempting to withdraw northward through the Rhone Valley along the river's east mank when a column from Lt. Gen Alexander M. Patch's advancing

NEW GOVERNMENT FOR FRANCE BEING SET UP IN LIBERATED PARIS

CAPITAL REPORTED QUIET MONDAY AFTER FRENZIED WEEKEND

PARIS, Aug. 28.—(AP)—A new French government was being set up in liberated Paris today after a frenzied week end in which Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was given a tumultous welcome, the Germans bombed the city, and Gen. Charles De Gaulle escaped death or injury from snipers' bullets.

(The Paris radio in a broadcast heard in London said the city was quiet today and that two additional nests of enemy resistance had been mopped up.)

Nearly all of the directors of the French resistance movements, who will have prominent parts in the new government, were in the city. The Algiers government was en route.

Quartus Cerat, head of all French resistance, was appointed minister at large under De Gaulle. Cerat's name, like some others in the resistance movement, is an assumed one.

Crowds jammed the Champs-Elysees yesterday and shouted themselves hoarse as Gen. Eisenhower and his British, French and American staffs made a ceremonial tour of the city that ended in the shadow of the Arc De Triomphe.

There the four-star general, with the smile as broad as the Kansas

Quadruplet Boys Born To Wife Of An Army Private

GAINESVILLE, Ga., Aug. 28.—(AP)—Four tiny baby boys slept in incubators in Hall county memorial hospital today while their 23-year-old mother, wife of an army private, repeated to attendants, "I don't know what I am going to do with all those babies."

The quadruplets weighing approximately three pounds each, were born to slim, auburn-haired Mrs. Charles E. Lee between 6 and 7 p.m. yesterday.

Doctors said the infants, normal and apparently healthy, had a good chance to live. Two of them were placed under oxygen tents.

Pvt. Lee, the babies' 25-year-old father who is stationed at Camp Blanding, Fla., when informed of their arrival last night exclaimed: "I'm very happy but I surely wish I could go home to see them. I guess I've got a job cut out for me after the war."

Mrs. Lee lives on a farm with her parents Her husband, a former sawmill worker, has been in the army since April. They have a three-year-old daughter, Betty Mae.

SURRENDER TERMS EXPECTED FEW DAYS FOR BULGARIA ARE

RUSSIANS HAVE ASKED OTHER NAZI SATTELITE NATIONS TO QUIT

LONDON, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Surrender terms for Bulgaria probably will be handed to an envoy of that Nazi satellite in Cairo within a few days and armistice terms for Romania are expected to be signed shortly in Moscow, it was learned today.

Greek and Yugoslav interests are understood to have full protection in the terms to the Bulgars despite that Balkan kingdom's strange plea, to be allowed to retain parts of those allied nations which Bulgaria grabbed with German approval. The peace terms were prepared by the European Advisory Commission and submitted to Washington and Moscow for approval. Steps were taken to obtain Greek and Yugoslav concurrence.

The Russians asked Germany's remaining allies—Finland, Hungary and the rump state of Slovakia—to quit the nazis before it is too late.

Urging other countries to turn against the nazis like Romania, the official communist party organ Pravda said only thus could they "escape the disastrous consequences of the criminal policies of their governments."

While Russia is not at war with Bulgaria, Pravda's warning seemed aimed at her as much as at Hungary and Finland.

Moscow is believed fully informed of the armistice terms forwarded to Sofia. The terms were not disclosed, but it was believed that, besides demandnig unconditional surrender, they called upon Bulgaria to give up all territories acquired since the war and turn over to the allies all facilities needed in the war against Germany. RECONVERSION BILL FACES AN UNCERTAIN AND ROUGH FUTURE

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION AND SURPLUS PROPERTY BILLS HIT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(AP)—A free-for-all house scrap over demobilization and reconversion legislation was assured today by a rules committee decision to permit every opportunity to amend the legislation on the floor.

Rep. Celler (D-NY) told the rules group that a bi-partisan bloc would offer a substitute bill proposing unemployment compensation for 52 weeks to a maximum of $25 weekly, and a boost in veterans benefits from $20 to $35 weekly.

The bill sponsored by the ways and means committee in debate beginning tomorrow, rips out sections of the senate-approved measure providing a program of retaining and re-employment of war workers and extending jobless coverage to federal employes.

Administration of unemployment compensation, including the fixing of the amount and duration of payments, would be left entirely in the hands of the states in both the senate and ways and means committee bills.

Gave Santa Haircut, Shave.

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn), ranking ways and means Republican, in telling the rules group what his committee did to the senate bill, said:

"We took Santa Claus in the barber shop and gave him a much needed hair cut and shave."

Celler commented: "I'm afraid Santa Claus' head has been cut off and the body buried."

A companion measure, providing for the disposition of surplus property, was criticized by the government agencies.

GREAT MILITARY TRAP CLOSING ABOUT DESPERATE HITLERITES FROM BOTH EAST AND WEST

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

The great military trap continues to close with accelerated speed about the desperate Hitlerites, crushing in toward doomed Germany both from the freshly erupting Russian front and from the speeding armored columns of the United Nations in the west.

The only question that remains is how long the already beaten Nazis can stand off utter collapse. The Allies are rushing in an effort to turn the trick before the bad weather of late autumn arrives to impede offensives.

There are three major Allied operations which are especially worth watching. These are the great northward turning movement growing out of the battle of the Seine and Paris, the sensational Russian drive into Romania, and the fresh assault against the Vistula line above Warsaw by the Red army.

Supreme Allied headquarters in France confirm that American troops east of Paris have swung northward and reached the Marne River—famous battlefield of two world wars. This means that the western Allies are well set to carry out a flanking movement against the Germans above the Seine River and along the coast of the English Channel.

The situation in the eastern theater presents momentous possibilities. The terrific Red drive down into Romania has already smashed the defenses of the famous Galati Gap, gateway into the rolling plains of the Danube basin.

When the Muscovites broke through that gap they breached the whole Balkan keg and made it impossible for the Germans to hold this great Peninsula. The Hitlerites will resist fiercely, but their fate already is sealed.

Equally important is word that the Russians again are smashing at the Vistula front above Warsaw

MISSING IN ACTION—Capt. Gulick Robinson, 23, veteran of 75 combat missions in a P-47 Thunderbolt fighter plane against the Nazis, is missing in action over France since August 2. A famous football player with Corsicana High School prior to playing with Hillsboro Junior College in 1939 and 1940, Capt. Robinson volunteered Nov. 10, 1941, in the U. S. Army Air Forces, received his primary training at Seminole, Okla., basic at San Angelo, and advanced at Mission. He later served a year on patrol in the Panama Canal area and went overseas to combat duty March 1, 1944. He had been recommended for the DFC. His wife, Nancy Dennis Robinson, resides at Hillsboro. His mother, Mrs. Nettie Robinson, lives in Corsicana. One brother, Charlie Robinson, is a civil service employee at Midland as a refrigeration engineer, while his other brother, Murray Robinson, Water Tender 3-c U. S. Navy, recently returned to San Francisco after nine months combat duty with the Pacific forces to recuperate from wounds received in action for which he was awarded the Purple Heart. He participated in the Tarawa and other engagements. Capt. Robinson had been stationed somewhere in England during the past several months. The message was received here Sunday afternoon by his mother.

ALLIED BOMBERS IN HEAVY ATTACKS UPON JAP WAR INDUSTRY

ATTACKS FROM EAST AND WEST CONTINUE TO HARASS JAPANESE

By LEONARD MILLIMAN
Associated Press War Editor

Allied bombers flying out of the east slashed at Japanese war production centers stretching 3,000 miles from Manchuria to Sumatra while American planes striking from the west maintained their incessant pounding along invasion roads to Japan and the Philippines.

Berlin radio forecast United States troops would soon be thrown into battle in China to stop Nipponese advances threatening American air bases.

Tokyo broadcasts told of air strikes at Anshan, Manchurian steel center, and Shanghai, where Japan produces wooden boats to augment her disappearang merchant fleet.

The raids emphasized an office of war information announcement that production of long range bombers was to be stepped up.

British Fleet Action

The British Far Eastern fleet, in its first action under command of Sir Bruce Austin Fraser, sent carrier planes in strong force against Indaroeng, Sumatra, site of a cement plant that produces materials for Nipponese fortifications. The surprise raid also heavily hit the port and airfield of nearby Padang, largest city on Sumatra. Only one plane was lost in the fourth Allied raid on Sumatra.

TWO LARGE RUSSIAN ARMIES RACED INTO ROMANIA OIL AREA

GALATI GAP DEFENSES SMASHED AND GERMANS ADMIT POSITION BAD

LONDON, Aug. 28—(AP)—Russian troops driving on Bucharest have captured Braila, 12 miles south of Galati and 98 miles northeast of the Romanian capital, Moscow announced tonight.

Braila, a town and port on the Danube with a population of about 62,000, was seized by Gen. Feodor I. Tolbukhin's Third Ukraine army which had captured Galati yesterday, Premier-Marshall Joseph Stalin announced in an order of the day.

Other forces under Gen. Rodion Y. Malinovsky were driving into the heart of Romania along the Focsani-Ploesti- Bucharest railway farther west, and the Berlin radio said that Russian troops attacking in the northwes had reached the Hungarian border.

By EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, Aug. 28.—(AP)—The great Russian army groups paced by colorful cossacks advanced to within 50 miles of Bucharest today in a drive swiftly overrunning the wealthy Ploesti oil region.

An unconfirmed report said some columns had plunged also 50 miles into Transylvania.

The 16,642 square mile northern section of Transylvania was cut away from Romania and awarded to Hungary by Hitler in the 1940 Vienna dictate. Yet there were no reports of Hungarians fighting alongside the Germans in that area.

(The German communique said "counterattacks by Hungarian and German troops to prevent the enemy from entering Hungary through the Eastern Carpathians are making good headway.

Warsaw Attack.

(The Germans said the Russians "continued their big attack" between Warsaw and East Prussia in the region between the Vistula and Narew rivers and "reached the Bobr area.")

PETAIN, LAVAL AND HERRIOT ARRESTED BY GERMAN GESTAPO

BEFORE BEING SEIZED AGED CHIEF OF STATE SENDS PEOPLE MESSAGE

By DON WHITEHEAD

PARIS, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Before Marshal Petain was seized by the Gestapo and reportedly taken to Germany, he sent a clandestine message to the people of France urging them to unite and stating that all he had done had been for their welfare.

The 88-year-old Vichy chief of state, his chief of government, Pierre Laval, and former Premier Edouard Herriot were arrested by the Gestapo a few days before the American and French forces entered Paris.

(Dispatches from Bern and from Delle, France, dated Thursday, said Petain and Laval still were at Marvillars, near Belfort, France, despite reports they had been taken to Germany. The confusion of reports, it was explained, arose from the fact that both had made one-day trips to the border city of Mulhouse.)

Taken into custody by an official of the German embassy, Petain was transported to Belfort on Aug. 20. Before leaving he sent a message to the French people saying

Nation Shivers In Unprecedented Low Temperatures

By The Associated Press.

From Wichita to Boston the nation shivered in abnormally low temperatures.

It never got above 65 Sunday in Kansas City, the third day in a row that the thermometer had set a record for a low maximum. And a mark that had stood for 66 years in Charlotte, N. C., fell chattering when the mercury dipped to 54.8.

Fires were lit in North Georgia (low 59), and in Indianopilis (57) And many of the 30,000 fans at the Athletic-Red Sox baseball game n Philadelphia (51) were tickled they had fetched along their topcoats. Boston had a low of 53, Des Moines and Detroit 52.

But the queerest quirk came in Kansas. Not only was it cold, it was wet. And on these normally

AMERICAN FIGHTERS AND FIGHTER BOMBERS BLAST FLEEING NAZIS

ITALY BASED BOMBERS ATTACK OIL AND RAIL INSTALLATIONS

LONDON, Aug. 28.—(AP)—American fighters and fighter bombers flew thousands of sorties from the west today beating up fleeing German troops, their airports and transport facilities all through Northern France, the low countries and as far into Germany as Frankfurt.

Striking up from Italy, strong forces of heavy U. S. bombers blasted the Moosierbaum oil refinery in Austria; the Szony refinery in Hungary on the Danube 50 miles northeast of Budapest; the Aviso viaduct and the Ora bridge on the Brenner Pass rail line in northern Italy. The Hungarian rail targets were at junctions of lines into surrendered Romania and threatened Czechoslovakia and were in tactical support of the swiftly advancing Russian armies.

Preliminary reports from British and French bases showed that about 500 American fighters alone had shot up 11 troop trains, more than 200 locomotives, oil tanks, barges, radio, flak emplacements, radio towers and power installations. This cavalry of the sky destroyed 500 freight cars and damaged 1,000 more.

Twenty-Six Were Killed In Crash Of Air Transport

LONDON, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Twenty-six persons were killed early today when a large air transport crashed into a house near the Trans-Atlantic military air base at Prestwick, Scotland.

The dead included seven of the plane crew, 14 passengers and five occupants of the house, which was demolished.

American soldiers and civil defense workers labored through the darkness to recover bodies from the wreckage and still were searching this morning for any additional victims.

The plane was inbound from an Atlantic crossing.

BRONZE STAR HAS BEEN AWARDED TO PFC. WILLIAMSON

Pfc. Cecil L. Williamson, U. S. Army, has been awarded the Bronze Star by Major Gen. Walter M. Robertson for gallantry in action in France, according to information from the war department.

Wounded in action in France on July 27, Williamson had previously been awarded the Expert Infantryman's badge. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williamson, 816 South Eighteenth, and a Half street. Entering the service July 7, 1943, the soldier has been overseas since January, 1944

Mrs. Maudie Capps, Corsicana, has received word from the war department stating that her husband, Corp. Jack Capps, 23, who was reported wounded in action in France on July 23, had returned to duty on July 31.

Corp. Capps attended Powell high school. He entered the armed services in July 1943 and had been overseas since April 1944.

GERMANS YIELDING BATTLEGROUND FIRST WAR TO AMERICANS

SWEEPING IN WIDE ARC U. S. ARMORED FORCES THREATEN GERMANY

By JAMES M. LONG

SUPPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Aug. 28—(AP)—American troops, sweeping in a wide arc threatening German lines of retreat into the Reich, have crossed the Marne and captured Meaux in the loop of the historic river 23 miles east of Paris.

The Germans were yielding the battleground of the first world war without a fight as the Americans swept on through Meaux unchecked. Sedan, a famous batlefield in 1870 and 1940, was 105 miles to the northeast.

Toward the sea the British established a fifth bridgehead across the Seine, swinging their forces across the river near Louviers, between Vernon and Point De L'Arche where the Canadians have crossed.

For the first time in this war American troops were fighting on a battlefield of the first world war. The quaint town of Meaux marked the high tide of the German attempt to take Paris in September, 1944—an attemut which ended with the Allied victory of the first battle of the Marne when the Paris taxicab army stemmed the German tide.

The town is 24 miles southwest of Chateau-Thierry where American troops in the second battle of the Marne held the Germans during the fateful days of June and July, 1918 and took part in the counteroffensive launched on July 18.

The whole Allied attack today was swinging north on or across the Seine River along almost the whole 200 miles from its source to the sea.

Rouen Is Doomed

Between Paris and the English Channel, American, British and Canadian armies deepened four bridgeheads over the Seine and have doomed Rouen, where Joan of Arc was tried and burned. Rouen, 13th city of France with 122,800 population, now is the center of German resistance such as it is.

The Allies also virtually doomed the great port of Le Havre and have opened the way into the Germans' flying bomb belt in the Pas De Calais farther north.

The American bridgehead was at Mantes, the British at Vernon and the Canadians had two between Elbeuf and Pont-Le-L'Arche.

U. S. Third army infantry was streaming into the great tank-won bulge between the Seine and the Marne forming a consolidated front 85 miles or more almost due east of Paris in a great half-wheel around the still exuberant and now virtually cleared French capital.

PARIS NEEDS FOOD BUT ALSO NEEDS TO GET RID ROWDYISM

THE GERMANS ARE GONE BUT FRENCH CAPITAL STILL IN UPROAR

By HOWARD COWAN
Associated Press Correspondent
Representing the ombined American Press.

PARIS, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Paris wants food—that her Allies can and will give her.

But, rid of the Germans, she now wants disorderly elements of the maquis and the French forces of the interior kept in check.

The Allies are determined that Gen. Charles De Gaulle must solve that problem.

Today—some 72 hours after Paris was liberated—the city still is in an uproar. Wild-eyed youths waving rifles and machineguns in one hand and driving careening automobiles with the other still roam the streets.

Tere still are sporadic outbursts of rifle fire and fist fights among the French themselves. The streets present no semblance of order.

Thanks which Brig. Gen. Jacques Le Clerc's French Second armored division drove into the strife-torn city still are parked under trees which line the capital's broad avenues.

The majority of the maqquis and the FFI, one highly competent observer estimated, are level-headed patriots who are anxious to return to the ask of restoring Paris and France to pre-war peacetime existence.

Small Percentage of Roughs

A small percentage was described as the "rougher element" who do not intend to give up the weapons which the Allies dropped to them by parachute in darkness.

The situation is unpleasant. The Allies are shying away from the use of the military, which would expose them to the accusation of using Nazi methods.

NO SOFT PEACE

As the net slowly closes around Germany, and the time for retribution grows near, a familiar situation develops. It appears clearly in a poll of the National Opinion Research Center and other inquiring groups. They urge lenient treatment of the German people, aside from the Nazi leaders, and talk of a "re-education program" instead of punishment. They seem to assume that the people responsible for the launching of this dreadful war are not "the real Germans," but have themselves been betrayed by unwise or evil leaders.

This is the sort of make-believe that would create a false peace and lead again, in due time, to another and still more dreadful war. Should it not be assumed by all sane men that the individuals and groups responsible for this horror deliberately chose the way of crime, and must be suitably punished for it? And that, while the active leaders of the German onslaught against civilization deserve special punishment, there should be penance also for the millions of Germans and Japanese who have been willing to accept the expected benefits of their leaders' crime? Otherwise criminal groups could wreck the world.

FIGHTER WHO CAME BACK

It is no secret that the military and civic standing of Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., was for a while at a low ebb. He happens to possess a temper which has been used sometimes not wisely but too well. There are some unfortunate spots in his record. But there is pretty general agreement now that the Senate has acted wisely in disregarding such blemishes and promoting him to the permanent rank of major general. This is done, apparently, at the request of Gen. Eisenhower, who recognized Gen. Patton's ability as a fighting man and wanted him to command the new Third Army.

Some gentle folk may deprecate this step. But war is a tough business, requiring tough men. It may be assumed that hereafter the fiery general's outstanding bursts will be reserved for the enemy rather than for his subordinates, most of whom are deeply loyal to him. Our greatest generals, on the whole, have been calm and considerate men. But war is rough at best, conducted under great strain. An isolated instance of loss of control may well be forgiven in case of sincere regret.

CHARTRES CATHEDRAL

Chartres Cathedral, called by Rodin "the most splendid of all our cathedrals—the Acropolis of France," is the best preserved of the true Gothic structures that have come down to us from the late twelfth and early thirteenth centuries. Long the favorite of tourists, the cathedral has a beauty of architecture, sculpture, and stained glass that makes it the most sublime expression of the medieval spirit left to the twentieth century. The beauty of the cathedral lies also in the intangible—in the religious zest of its builders, in the prayers left there by countless pilgrims, in the music of old Gregorian chants now somehow become an integral part of the building. Napoleon felt these things when he said, "an athiest would feel ill at ease here." Everybody feels them who sees the afternoon sun come through the blue and red glass to cast bits of patterned color on the cathedral floor.

If in passing through Chartres the Germas bomb the cathedral, they will destroy building stones that can be replaced, and sculpture that can to some extent be mended. But the essential spirit of the cathedral would be irreplaceable. The twentieth century has its own high values, but it needs as part of its foundation the beauty and faith of the Middle Ages.

QUATRAINS

Force.

To rule with might is easy quote
For weeks or months or years.
Until to fight for God and right
A greater force appears.

Postwar World.

A better world of law and code,
Perhaps through life a smoother road,
But need for faith in what is right
And work by day and rest by night.

Peace of Mind.

It seems that man is so designed
Three joys suffice for peace of mind:
A useful task, and love, and then
The good will of his fellow men.

Difficulty.

Did nothing here his progress stay
And man could always have his way,
Do what he wished with ease, he'd cry
For tasks his strength and wit to try.

TRANSITION TO PEACE

It was good to hear from Donald Nelson, chairman of national war production, that civilian production of goods and materials in this country would soon increase about 30 per cent, or nearly one-third of the present output. With the rapid deterioation of the Nazi war machine in Europe, it will soon be possible to cut down munition orders by a still larger percentage.

Such statements are not merely statistics. They represent human facts directly affecting the living and the opportunities of tens of millions of Americans. During the critical war period people have endured difficult conditions with patience and patriotism, as an essential part of the war effort. They will still have to endure a good deal of delay as conditions move back slowly toward normal. But the greatness of our American economic power matches the greatness of our military power. We are not tired and weak, as other belligerents are. Apparently we are going to emerge from this great conflict as powerful as ever economically—and more so in comparison with other nations.

It is, however, a matter not for boasting but for gratitude. With less courage, unity and wisdom we might have lost far more.

SUMMONS FOR HITLER

The last war ended with surprising suddenness. All at once, as it seemed, the armistice came and people were dancing in the streets. Many observers seem to expect such a sudden blessing this time, too. It is a matter that nobody can safely prophesy, but it seems reasonable to say that the collapse now will not come so quickly.

For one thing, there is the fiery Hitler, fearful for his army and for his own fate, who may prolong the collapse or delay the surrender unreasonably. He might do this as a matter of pride, even while knowing that the situation is hopeless. Or if giving up in a more rational mood, he might cause delay through technicalities and confusion.

But the statesmen and the sturdy military leaders in charge of the Allied cause will give short shrift to any such effort. Soon enough will come the curt command from the conquerors, to sign promptly on the dotted line.

Then, too, it might be a good idea to attach Adolf Hitler to one of those robots.

It doesn't seem fair to bring all those war brides from Australia, with women so scarce there.

Only Emergency Messages Be Sent To Servicemen

Emergency messages to servicemen outside the continental United States continue an important part of the responsibilities of the home service department of the Navarro Red Cross chapter but non-emergency messages now have to be ruled out, it was announced today.

"The volume of non-emergency requests reached such proportions that more urgent messages were often delayed in transmission from Washington," explained Mrs. A. E. Haslam, home service chairman of the local chapter. "Along with the other 3,755 chapters of the Red Cross, the Navarro chapter now is obliged to place a limitation on its message service, elimnating the non-emergency in order to expedite the emergency communication to servicemen in far parts of the world."

The chairman stated that the local Red Cross will still be glad to talk over the non-emergency message problem with relatives of servicemen, for in many cases they can be directed to an official government source to help them.

Commercial Facilities.

"Commercial cable facilities are available to most APO addresses and navy, marine corps and coast guard stations overseas," said the home service chairman. "If it is not possible to communicate with the serviceman by means of a cable message, families are advised to send the message by V-mail.

"Our national headquarters tells us that it cannot use army and navy radio for transmitting messages of a non-emergency nature to servicemen overseas."

"The Red Cross will do itas best from the home chapter here all along the line to the distant front," the local chairman stated. "But only in real emergencies can we undertake such service."

In cases of home emergencies the Red Cross makes every effort to contact the Red Cross field director attached to the unit in which the man serves, the chairman stated. There are many uncertainties about quick contacts, however, because of emergency conditions in the theaters of war.

Republicans Hold District Meeting

Republican Sixth Congressional District convention was held in Corsicana Saturday morning and nominated Charles W. Beck of Hillsboro to oppose Luther A. Johnson, Incumbent, Democrat, in the congressional race in November. This also ratified the action of the congressional caucus held in Dallas, August 8, and the election of Hugh Loper of Corsicana as congressional chairman, succeeding J. Wed Davis of Freestone county.

Loper presided at the convention here Saturday while W. A. Conner of Dawson was secretary.

Delegates represented included J. L. Thomas, Braozs county; G. W. McClain, Ellis county; Charles W. Beck and Ben Ballard, Hill county; James Smith, Limestone county; D. E. Merrill, Leon county; P. Wed Smith and Asa M. Hartley, Freestone county. Mose Blumrosen, W. A. Conner, Hugh Loper, W. L. Roberts and H. O. Thornton, all of Navarro county.

Information From Navarro County Rationing Board

(Below are the answers to several questions which have been asked by the public concerning car sales under maximum price regulation number 540.)

1. Q. Can a dealer tag the cars on the front of his lot and sell cars which are not tagged from the rear of his lot?

A. Section 10 provides that every dealer offering a used car for sale shall attach to it in a conspicious place a label or tag in the form set forth in Appendix E. This means every car must be tagged before it is offered for sale or trade.

2. Q. Can a dealer add to his maximum price a commission paid for the finding of the car if he paid such commission before the effective date of the regulation?

A. Nothing can be added to the maximum price except the listed equipment in Appendix D. A seller may not change a finders fee.

3. Q. Can a purchaser be required to pay the seller a charge for service in connection with application for certificate of title and drawing papers if the seller has customarily performed these services?

A. The seller is not permitted to require the purchaser to purchase any service or to make any terms or conditions of sale more burdensome than they customarily have been except to the extent allowed by the regulation.

4. Q. Can a dealer limit warranty to the car and sell radio and heater "as is."?

A. Dealer must furnish exact warranty prescribed in order to sell above "as is" price., warranty must extend to all equipment.

5. Q. Is it a violation of the regulation for a dealer to allow less than the reasonable value of a vehicle on a trade in?

A. Yes. Such an allowance results in the dealer receiving a consideration for the vehicle sold in excess of the ceiling price if the amount received for the vehicle sold plus the difefrence between the reasonable value of the trade in and the amount allowed would exceed the ceiling price. The ceiling price does not necessarily determine what is a reasonable allowance. Such a determination is a question of fact.

6. Q. May a dealer sell a car on a commission basis for an individual at more than the base price?

A. No.

7. Q. May a dealer sell a used automobile to another dealer at more than the base price?

A. No.

Lt. Col. Garner Is Assigned To Ft. Sill

FORT SILL, Okla., Aug. 26.—(Spl.) Lt. Col. John J. Garner, Corsicana, Texas, has been assigned to the staff and faculty of the Field Artillery School at this post.

Col. Garner was assistant postmaster at Corsicana before being called to active duty with the 36th Division in November, 1940. He recently returned to the States after several months active duty with the Fifth Army in Italy. He was a non-commissioned officer during World War I.

A Silver Star decoration was received by the officer following the Salerno beachhead battle with the Nazis.

Jar-At-a-Time Canning Method Is Recommended

A simple scheme for canning small supplies of fruit has been suggested in the jar-at-a-time method. As storage space and time to can is as comparatively scarce as fruit, one housewife limits herself to a dozen pints of her favorite fruits.

When she comes home from work in the evening she brings enough fruit for her dessert and the left-over is used for filling a pint jar. She has a bowl that when well filled exactly with raw fruit makes just enough to fill the glass jar.

She used the old fashioned "open kettle" method of canning the fruit as it is impractical in the kitchenette to use elaborate equipment. While the fruit cooks, a glass jar and sealing cap are also boiling so as to be sterilized and ready for the fruit. A folded clean cloth is placed under the jar while it is heating and tablespoon inthe jar helps chase away air-bubbles and prevents the boiling fruit from cracking the glass. (Only glass jars specifically designed for canning are used.) By this quick, simple one-war-at-a-time method, the housewife in question has put away a winter supply of cherries, plums, peaches, apricots and pears. And she has taken no more time to "can fruit" than to cook a dessert or pack next day's lunch-box!

Maurice Davis Is Wounded In Action French Invasion

Pvt. Maurice Davis, 23, U. S. Army, Infantry, was seriously wounded in action in France July 31, according to a telegram from the war department received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis, 1116 West Eleventh avenue.

Entering the service in March, 1943, he completed training at a gunnery school in Tennessee in January, 1944, and went overseas shortly thereafter.

Pvt. Davis is now in a hospital in France. He attended the Corsicana high school.

Sgt. James Ellett Been Promoted To Staff Sergeant

James Newton (Sonny) Ellett, U. S. Army, quartermasters department, now stationed somewhere in France, has been promoted from the rank of sergeant to that of staff sergeant, according to information received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Ellett. Sgt Ellett's wife, Ellen Purifoy Ellett, resides here.

Sgt. Ellett formerly was quarterback with the Corsicana High School Tigers under the late Coach John A. Pierce. He was stationed inl the Northwest for some time after his induction and spent several months in England before being transferred to France July 1 after the Cherbourg Peninsula was taken by the Allies.

DECORATIONS FOR S-SGT. PACE PAYNE PRESENTED MOTHER

Decorations including the Silver Star, Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal awarded Staff Sgt. Pace P. Payne, U. S. Army Air Forces aerial gunner, missing in the Pacific Theater of Operations since June 26, 1943, were presented his mother, Mrs. Emma Payne, Corsicana route 5, at Corsicana Field Saturday at 11 a. m.

Military ceremonies marked the presentation of the decorations made by Capt. Lonnie J. Edmondson, acting commanding officer.

The Silver Star was awarded the missing gunner for "gallantry in action over x x x, New Guinea, on April 14, 1943."

Long Range Missions.

The Distinguished Flying Cross was awarded "for extraordinary achievement while participating in 200 hours of operational flight missions in the Southwest Pacific Area, from December 2, 1942, to June 1, 1943, during which hostile contact was probable and expected. These operations included long-range bombing missions against enemy airdromes and installations and attacks on hostile naval vessels and shipping. Throughout these operations outstanding ability, courage, and devotion to duty were demonstrated."

Bombed Enemy Shipping.

The citation for the Air Medal stated: "for meritorious achievement while participating in an aerial flight over hostile convoy, near x x x New Guinea, on April 16, 1943. This B-17 type aircraft was engaged in a bombing mission against enemy shipping near x x x. After flying through thunder storms and difficult icing conditions which necessitated the use of instruments, the target was reached and a 7,000 ton enemy cargo vessel was sighted at anchor near the shore.

"A low level bombing attack was made from an altitude of 150 feet. Two 1,000 pound bombs were dropped and near misses were scored on the vessel, the explosions turning the boat 30 degrees to its original position. In the face of heavy anti-aircraft fire, a second run was made. One bomb was dropped on the vessel, causing it to list heavily and turn toward the beach where it ran aground.

Third Bombing Run.

"Despite injuries suffered by three of the crew members when an explosive shell struck the air craft, a third bombing run was made over x x x x and hits were scored on important ground installations. The courage ability and devotion to duty displayed by these combat crew members in the conduct of this mission are worthy of commendation."

The son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Payne, he volunteered for service April 22, 1942 and was graduated August 1942, from the aerial gunnery school at Harlingen. Sgt. Payne attended the Petty's Chapel school and the Corsicana High school.

A large number of relatives and friends attended the ceremonies.

Corsicana Couple Take Nuptial Vows In Pensacola, Fla.

The marriage of Miss Loretta June Garrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Garrison, to Ensign W. M. Spear, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Spear, was solemnized at 12, noon, on Tuesday, August 22nd, at the U. S. Naval chapel in Pensacola, Fla. Chaplain Donald R. Caughey officiated at the single ring ceremony which was read before an altar adorned with tall baskets of white gladioli, with gleaming white tapers in floor candelabra proving a soft illumination for the setting.

The muted tones of "I Love You Truly" were heard as a background for the ceremony, the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" was used as the processional, and the recessional was the traditional Mendelssohns "Wedding March."

The bride was attired in pourde blue crepe with white accessories and gardenia corsage, and carried a white Bible.

Mrs. E. D. Stewart of Wichita Falls, who attended the bride as matron of honor, wore dusty rose crepe with contrasting accessories and a gardenia corsage. Ensign Albert Seawell of Dallas served the bridegroom os best man.

The bride was graduated from Corsicana High School in 1942, and a bridegroom received his diploma from Corsicana High School in 1940, and received his wings and commission at Pensacola Naval Air Station on August 22nd.

FSA SUPERVISOR PROTECTION OF FARM IMPLEMENTS

Taking care of what we have is one way to boost available food supplies, suggests L. O. Wright, Navarro County Supervisor for the Farm Security Administration. FSA is emphasizing to the 226 families cooperating with its program in this county that protection is a twin to production.

"Everything and everybody must do double duty these days," says Wright' "The only way this is possible is to take the very best care of what we have. Protection doubles the life of our farm equipment and household appliances. Conservation increases the power of our soil to yield its maximum in food and fibre required for our nation at war. Care increases the production and lengthens the life of our livestock, workstock and poultry," he added.

Wright warns that even with an early end of the war, new machinery will be scarce for many more months.

"To keep this machinery going we must use the right fuels, motor oils and greases. We must replace worn parts immediately to prevent further wear which might result in complete breakdown. And we must get out of the habit of leaving valuable equipment out in all kinds of weather," he said.

The FSA is urging families cooperating with its program to properly care for their record-breaking output of canned goods for home use. Sturdy shelves in well ventilated closets, free of light which might discolor fruits and vegetables are recommended.

Attention also is being given the housing of layers, prior to the advent of cold weather. "Eggs do not come from trees," comments Wright He declares that FSA families find that proper housing boosts egg production.

Correct methods of harvesting and storing hay and other fed crops are advocated, and every family is urged to retain all plant and animal waste in a compost pile to increase the fertility of next spring's garden.

County Commissioner and Mrs. L. M. Seale of Kerens were Corsicana visitors Friday afternoon.

S. D. CHESTNUTT, KENEDY PUBLISHER, BURIED AT BEEVILLE

KENEDY, Tex., Aug. 28—(AP)—Funeral services were planned at Beeville today for S. Denver Chestnutt, 58, owner, editor and publisher of the Kenedy Advance for 32 years, who died of a heart ailment here yesterday.

A native of Lufkin, Chestnutt came to the Advance in 1911 as a partner of J. M. Cunningham, now editor of the Three Rivers News. He soon became sole owner. In the intervening years, Chestnutt served on the Texas Press Association's Executive Committee, was TPA President in 1922, was for six years a member of the Texas State Prison Board and served four years as a director of the National Prison Association.

He had likewise been in newspaper work at Lufkin, Nacogdoches, Halletsville and Beeville.

This last June Chestnutt leased the Advance to C. K. Mick for three years.

Survivors include the widow; a daughter, Mrs. C. C. Roos, Victoria; three sons, Cpl. John Chestnutt, stationed in New Guinea; Cpl. Bill Fore Chestnutt, in the Pribliof Islands and Sam Chestnutt of Freeport, and a sister, Mrs. Rannie Runnels, Austin.

PACIFIC WAR

American Pacific forces intensified their steady pounding at the approaches to Japan and the Philippines.

Five Japanese interceptors were shot down in two successive dyalight attacks by Marianas-based planes on Iwo Jima, 750 miles south of Tokyo. Docks were left in flames and three Jap planes destroyed in consecutive daylight strikes against Palau, 600 miles east of the Philippines. Halmahera, southern stepping stone to the Philippines, was raided for the 20th day without interruption.

Dozen Jap Ships

Altogether week-end announcements listed a dozen Japanese ships sunk or probably destroyed. Eight were in the Southwest Pacific, two at Sumatra, one at Hongkong and one near Hanoi, Indo-China.

Berlin radio reported an American paratroop division and a mechanized division were stationed at Kwellin, in southeast China, and would soon be thrown into battle to stem Japanese drives toward that air center from the north and south.

The Japanese reopened fighting in North Central China to drive Chinese from the western flank of the Chenghsien-Hankow railway, which they are rebuilding. Chungking announced Gen. Chang Teh Seng was executed for roleliction of duty in his unsuccessful defense of Changsha, on the Hankow-Canton railroad.

British raiders penetrated 100 miles behind enomy lines in southwest Burma. American patrols killed or captured more than 400 Japanese on Dutch Nek Guinea, vanguard of 15,000 fleeing from the Manokwari garrison.

AERIAL

They exploded an ammunition train carrying many tons of explosives near Budenville with a blast which jarred the countryside for miles around.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—(AP)—RAF Lancasters and Halifaxes with fighter escort attacked a concrete structure in the French coastal area late yesterday believed to be connected with the nazis' secret longlong range "V-Z" rocket, the air ministry announced today.

The Berlin radio reported allied bombers blasting again today at nazi Europe from both Italy and Great Britain, striking in northwest Germany, Austria, Hungary, and Czecho-slovakia.

The concrete structure was at Mimoyecques in Pas Des Calais. The nazis have been threatening use of a 60 to 90-ton rocket with a war head estimated at about 10 tons, and capable of wrecking damage far beyond that of the present robot bomb.

Last night RAF Mosquitos slashed at the Rhineland industrial center of Mannheim and attacked German transport in the low countries.

Heavy bombers were apparently idle overnight, but the fast Mosquitos struck into Holland, bombing and strafing trains, motor convoys and barges while others slashed at Mannheim.

Batter Nazi Oil Sources.

Yesterday powerful formations of allied planes from Britain and Italy smashed at Germany's synthetic oil sources and strafed and bombed retreating nazi troops in France, after RAF assaults Saturday night on Konigsbert, Kiel, Hamburg and Berlin.

Pilots report considerable movement of German reinforcements and supplies from the low countries into France.

Early today, air activity over Northern France was restricted by rain and solid cloud banks. Planes based on England and France flew about 5,000 sorties yesterday.

The day's score included destruction or damage of 191 locomotives, 1-100 railroad cars, 700 motor vehicles, 39 barges and 44 field guns.

In all overations from the west yesterday, allied fliers destroyed 18 German planes aloft and 22 on the ground. Twenty allied planes were lost, three of which were U. S. heavy bombers.

Robot Bombs Fall Again.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Robot bombs fell in London and South England around noon today, breaking a lull of more than 30 hours, but the attacks were limited and short.

Some buzzed in from directions which suggested that the Germans are using new sites, perhaps some held in reserve, newly constructed or shifted from other locations.

A communique said 450 flying bombs were launched against England in the week ended at 6 a. m. today, making the total amount 7,700 since the blind attacks started.

The night was free of bombs.

The Daily Mail said the Russians came across a place in Poland where the Germans have been testing super "V-2" rockets and had turned over the information to the British experts.

in Romania appeared broken by the Red army, which stormed within 50 miles of Bucharest and was overrunning the rich Ploesti oil fields area.

The Nazi plight was underlined by the reported surrender of two corps commanders, two major generals and 18,000 soldiers, bringing to 300,000 the number of Germans and Romanians killed or captured in eight days, and to 1,081,886 the number of Axis troops killed or captured on the east front since the start of the summer offensive June 23.

Swiss reports said Nazis in Greece cut off by the turnabout of Romania, were preparing to fight their way out of the country through Yugoslavia. Russia warned Balkan satellites again to quit Hitler.

In Western France, Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army has taken 65,000 prisoners and killed 10,000 in its race across Brittany to the heart of France.

At Brest, the Americans were pressing a final all-out attack on the port which would permit a flow of supplies to France direct from America.

The Allies now hold positions on and across the Seine along its entire 200 miles from its source to the sea. Rouen and Le Havre were being enveloped, and the British and Canadians poured into the bridgeheads across the river and struck out toward the robot coast in hot pursuit of the battered German 15th army.

German losses adlso have been heavy in the south. More than 50,000 troops have been knocked out of action since the invasion of South France. About 15,000 of the battered Nazi 19th army have been eliminated, and the German 242nd and 244th divisions have been wiped out in Marseille and Toulon

In Italy, Polish troops drove fiercely on the Germans withdrawing to the Gothic Line punched a hole to a point beyond the Matauro river and on across the Arzilla and placed the eighth army in the Adriatic sector a little more than 20 miles from Rimini at the south edge of the broad Po valley.

WEST FRANCE

hold along the Marne at Lagny, was described as meeting virtually no opposition. It gave the Americans as assault line from which they could turn any Marne defenses or stab north in a deep incirclement—or cut off—of the rocket bomb coast.

To the southeast one American column was at Nangias across the Seine 16 miles east of Melun. a second was at Provins, 45 miles southeast of Paris, and a third pushed seven miles north of captured Nogent to Villenauxe.

Beyond Troyes on the American right flank a fourth column jabbed toward Vitry, on the upper Marne 45 miles southwest of Verdun, and less than 100 miles from the German border.

No Confirmation

There was no confirmation at supreme headquarters of an Algiers broadcast reporting that the Americans had reached Vitry—but the extent of the gain beyond Troyes was kept a security secret.

Supreme headquarters said that the whole front south of the Seine "except in the last shredded Nazi pocket south of the Seine mouth, has been mopped up except for scattered groups of nowhere more than 1,000 Germans and these are being cleaned out swiftly."

A front dispatch said that a trap spelling death for many Germans was established in three loops on the left bank of the Seine in the area of Rouben, 65 miles northwest of Paris Scattered elements of five German divisions, numbering in all perhaps 20,000 men, were being pounded from the ground and air as the Nazis scrambled madly to get across the river and join in the retreat to the east.

Last Stand of Seventh Army

This was the last stand of the tag end of the broken German Seventh army and the 15th army which came too late to its aid. The Germans pinched into the three pockets in the Seine bends between Rouben and the sea are attempting to cross the river which there ranges in width from 300 yards to a mile.

A senior British staff officer said that there had been no atempt by the Germans, so far as the British could learn, to help or reinforce the Nazi troops caught in the Seine area. He added:

"All (enemy) reinforcements appear to have been switched to the territory southeast of Paris in an effort to meet the American drive which tureatens to outflank the whole Le Havre Peninsula and the Pas De Calais coast. The Germans are in a very poor way. They are frightfully frightened, of the American drive."

Allies Pour Across River

At their respective bridgeheads northwest of Paris the Americans, British and Canadians were pouring an unbroken flood of troops and tanks across the river to write off the last of the German 15th army.

Le Havre on the Seine Estuary and the second largest port in France, already is doomed.

Front reports said the Germans had withdrawn all but a few rearguards and demolition squads—which might yet make a backs-to-the-sea stand as at Brest.

At Brest on the tip of the Brest Peninsula besieging American roops fought forward 1,000 yards in an assault that now has carried into the main inland defense system close around the town.

Reconnaissance showed heavy renewed German train movements in the area just north of the Seine between Paris and the Pas De Calais coast.

Meaning Not Known

There was no way of telling whether this was another indication of a hurried eleventh hour withdrawal from the rocket bomb coast or merely the rushing in of supplies to stiffen a delaying fight.

Whatever its purpose and whatever the Germans' course there was no indication that the enemy has the force or the strategic position for a successful maintained defense anywhere short of the Belgian frontier—if there.

British headquarters in France announced that since D-Day 25 German generals and one admiral had been killed, wounded, captured, replaced or had just disappeared in western France.

THREE-DAY BOY SCOUT CAMPOREE PLANNED CAMP WANICA SITE

A Boy Scout camporee will be held Saturday, Sunday and Monday at Camp Wanica, it has been announced by I. G. Pumpelly, Scout executive. The camporee is for all Scouts in Navarro county and a large enrollment is expected.

The following information concerning the camporee has been prepared by Red H. Harvey, chairman of camping and activities:

The Camp Fire Girls have made Camp Wanica available to the Scouts which is greatly appreciated. By so doing it makes it possible to use the swimming pool, which will be supervised by experienced waterfront men.

Should a troop come as a unit with leadership, they may furnish their own food. If a Scout or troop wishes the food will be furnished at camp for a fee of $1.00 per day per boy or $3.00 for the three days.

As far as possible troops are requested to bring their own shelter. Should a troop not be able to furnish their shelter there will be means of taking care of the boys.

Sunday there will be a religious service for the boys so Scouts will not miss their church school.

Camp will open the morning of September 2.

Items Each Scout Should Bring.

Bathing suit, tooth brush, towels (2 or 3), changes of underwear and sox, extra change of clothes, bedroll or two covers, cots if you have one, if not, ground cloth; knife, fork, spoon, plate and cup; skillet or mess kit, flashlight and kodak may be desirable.

Should a Scout wish to attend, leadership will be provided but troop leaders are urged to attend if possible.

Physical examination blank must be properly filled out and signed.

Mail entry which will be physical examination blank as soon as possible and state whether you wish for the food to be furnished at camp or if you intend to bring it to Fred H. Harvey, Jr., care Texas Power & Light Company, Corsicana, Texas.

REDUCE NUMBER OF VOTING BOXES IN NAVARRO COUNTY

Voting precincts of Navarro county were reduced from 48 to [illegible] by action of the commissioners' court at a special meeting Monday morning. Spring Hill was consolidated with Dawson and Black Hills was joined to White's Chapel, it was stated.

The bonds of F. E. Withrow, Jr., and Claude Phillips as public weighers were approved.

The July report of Dr. Will Miller, acting director of the health unit, and the [illegible] report of Exell McClellan, negro home demonstration agent, were received and approved.

The commissioners did not take any action relative to renumbering the precincts in the county at Monday's session.

Another [illegible] is scheduled Monday afternoon.

A regular meeting will be held Friday, Sept. 1.

Front dispatches said Nazi storm troopers were haranguing and threatening the German troops in efforts to make a stand. There was sporadic resistance, but the armies of Gen. Feodor I. Tolbuhin and Gen. Rodion Y. Malinovsky appeared to have broken the back of the Nazi forces before Bucharest.

(A Bucharest communique said Romanian troops going over to the Allies sttruck the Germans at Ploesti and blocked mountain passes leading to Hungary by way of Transylvania.)

(German broadcasts frankly admitted their position was "precarious," and said Nazi trooos were locked in "unusually ferocious" battle with Romanian troops amid the twisted wreckage of Polesti oil field installations.)

Russians overwhelmed the Germans at Focansi and Galati, anchors of the once vaunted Nazi defense line, and folled on through the oil fields of Ramnicul-Sarat, 22 miles beyond Focansi and 75 miles northeast of Bucharest. Ploesti is 57 miles southwest of the advancing Red armies.

Way to Bucharest Open

Malinovsky moved on Ploesti and Bucharest down the southern side of the Translyvanian Alps while Tolbukhin rolled ahead from the Danube. The way appeared wide open to Bucharest.

Surrender of two Nazi corps commanders and two major generals, together with 18,000 soldiers, indicated the seriousness of the Germans plight.

The remnants of 12 German divisions pocketed southwest of Chisinau 140 miles behind the Russians puring through the Galati Gap, had been compressed into a small wooded area and were being destroyed, the war bulletin sal.

In the eight days of the Romanian drive the Russians have killed or captured more than 300,000 Germans and Romanians. This made 1,081,866 Axis troops killed or captured since the summer offensive started June 23.

The Moscow communique said Russian positions northeast and east of Praga, Warsaw's east suburb, had ben improved, and that 50 additional localities on the Estonian front capitulated to the Third Baltic army.

Pvt. Wiley M'Clain Injured In France

Pvt. Wiley McClain, U. S. Army, was slightly wounded in France on July 29, according to information received by his brother, S. C. McClain of Dawson. Pvt. McClain has been in the army four years, and prior to enlistment, made his home with his brother in Dawson.

Hints On Overseas Holiday Gifts To Service Forces

Servicemen and women overseas have decided what they want for Christmas.

Soldiers in all theaters would like money orders and wallets, razor blades and small shaving kits, pocket-sized books and photographs in waterproof folders, automatic pencils, stationery, games, cards, puzzles, hard candy, soap, dried fruit, vacuum-packed nuts and wrist watches, the Office of War Information reports.

Sailors everywhere want pocket-sized dictionaries, novels, mysteries, westerns and humor—but no war stories; sneakers for showers and moccasin-type bedroom slippers; pocket knives with attachments; Bibles, alarm clocks, playing cards, insect repellents, small snapshots, toilet kit and shaving kits, foot powder, sun-glasses, fountain pens, writing pads, fruit cake tinned luxury foods, such as olives, sardines, nuts; coat hangers, washclothes, small momemade personal articles and steel mirrors.

For Army Nurses

Army nurses want washable brunch coats, clothepins, buttons, needles, thread, mending equipment, lingerie, bobby pins, hair nets, elastic, cosmetics of all kinds, tinned delicacies, hard candies and nuts in tins, tinned biscuits, scented soaps, khaki neckties.

Navy nurses would like Christmas decorations and birthday decorations for parties, starcy, silk stocking of white, black or beige, underclothes which don't have to be ironed, play shoes, sneakers, boudoir slippers, bathing suits, records and sheet music, books, kerchiefs, ports equipment, magazine subscriptions.

WACs want sheer stocking first of all, also zippers and calstic girdles.

OWI offered the remainder that overseas gifts should be sent between Sept. 15 and October 15 and marked "Christmas parcel."

Streetman Officer Nurse Subject Of Article In Paper

STREETMAN, Aug. 25.—(Spl.)—Under the heading "Know Your Officers" a recent issue of the Pyote Pill Pusher, camp paper of the AAF regional station hospital at Pyote, carried an extensive article on Lieut. Grace Lanier Burleson, ANC of this city.

White's Chapel Club Plans For Exhibit At Coming Fair

Plans for the "Country Kitchen" on "White's Chapel Day" at the Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural show Sept. 12-16 were discussed at the White's Chapel home demonstration club meeting in the community center August 23. Further plans will be compelted at a special meeting September 6 at which Mrs. Gray will be hostess.

Mrs. F. P. McCulston presided over Wednesday's meeting, and Mrs. Louise Spurlock was hostess. Guests included Mrs. Jesse Dunton, Misses Betty Jean Beeman, Navarro, and Joanne Parrish, Emhouse.

Wounded Sons Are Getting Along Fine

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Johnston, 313 South Thirteenth street, received two telegrams Tuesday from the war department reporting that two of their sons now fighting in France has been wounded in action.

Thursday Mrs. Johnston received two letters, one from each of her wounded sons, written by them in hospitals in England and both stated that they were getting along fine.

The sons are, Pfc. Albert W. Johnston, 22, wounded August 7, and Sam A. Johnston, 25, wounded August 5.

Former Corsicanans Announce Arrival Of Son in Fort Worth

Corp. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Parker announce the arrival of a seven-pound son, Lloyd S. Parker Jr., at the Fort Worth Hospital on August 24th.

Mrs. Parker was the former Miss Betty Ruth Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Parsons of Fort Worth, former residents of this city, and Corp. Parker, who is stationed with the U. S. Army Air Corps at Clovis, N. M., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Parker of this city.

After leaving the Fort Worth hospital, Mrs. Parker and son will be at home at 5633 Malvey avenue, Fort Worth.

latter presumably includes rights of passage for allied troops.

There seemed little possibility that either Washington or London would be satisfied with the position of "complete neutrality" Bulgaria seeks.

Reports from Moscow said the Germans were doing their best to keep weakening Hungary in line by rushing defense construction workers to her borders. The Free Hungarian Conucil in London urged Hungarians to overthrow the present government and turn against the Germans.

There also were reports indicating Finland might be taking steps to break with the nazis. One unconfirmed dispatch from Stockholm said Juho Paasikivi, Finland's ace negotiator, was in Moscow dickering for terms.

SOUTH FRANCE

army fell upon them and in a series of rough encounters killed untold hundreds, a headquarters announcement said. Montelimar is about 100 miles north of Marseilles.

It is estimated 15,000 of the battered German 19th army have been eliminated.

The loss of this force, which was announced simultaneously with the loss of the German 242d and 244th divisions at Marseilles and Toulon, means at least 50,000 German front line soldier have been eliminated.

Hampering the nazis in their flight up the Rhone has been the work of the allied air force, cutting bridges from underneath them and making withdrawals both hazardous and costly. The chances of the nazis to pull east and north of Valense, 28 miles north of Montelimra, were diminishing with each day's fighting.

One Chance of Escape.

If the Germans have enough speed left to outstep Patch's forward columns and they can find a way to keep the allied air force from slashing their communications too severely, their one chance of withdrawal appears to lie beyond Lyon through the flat country north of Genera via Bescancon and Mulhouse. This would bring them out at the German border.

But threatening even this route was the allied force which made a spectacular 140 mile drive to Grenoble in the first few days of the invasion, and whose present whereabout remains a secret, as far as allied headquarters is concerned.

This force is commanded by Brig. Gen. Frederick Butler, a native of San Francisco, Calif., and is known officially as "Butler's Task Force."

Marseille Resistence Weak.

While strong forces of bombers assaulted the heavily manned enemy coastal batteries on the fortified Island of Ratonneau, which lies west of Marseille, French infantry reported they had all but eliminated nazi resistance in the great maritime port. All opposition was confined exclusively to the harbor area.

On the eastern flank of the Bridgehead allied forces have reached the Var river and have spread out along its banks. The Var's mouth is only four miles from the great Riviera playground resort of Nice.

For the 15th consecutive day allied ground forces were favored by clear skies and warm weather.

Roll Along Swiss Border.

(Reports from Switzerland received in London said American columns were rolling along the Smiss border from Periy, three miles south of Geneva, and were within 170 miles of the American armies in Northern France at Troyes.)

(An Algiers broadcast said that French forces of the interior had liberated Vichy, French collaborationist capital, but give no details.)

Resistance collapsed inside the city and port of Toulon over the weekend, but use of the major French naval base was denied the allies by enemy units retreating to a peninsula dominating the harbor.

An indication of weakening enemy resistance was seen in the surrender of 1,000 Germans north of Grenoble. Allied headquarters said the nazis threw down their arms and marched over to the American side when their commander ordered them to attack.

The total of prisoners taken in Southern France rose to 23,000.

Corsicana Airman Took Part Attack On Nazi Column

AN ADVANCE AIR BASE IN SOUTHERN FRANCE, Aug. 28.—(AP)—A staggering enemy column attempting to flee up the Montelimar Valence highway to escape the thrashing doughboy drive was caught today ina funnel by the Air Force with such devastating results that one pilot said when he left "the whole valley was aflame" with German vehicles.

Flying through flak, described by Lt. Angus F. Turner of Chicago as "thick enough to walk on" fighters and fighter-bombers found an 11-mile-long Nazi convoy heading northward on the highway and by mid-afternoon had destroyed 90 vehicles, damaged 136 others and were still going strong.

Pilots zipped along os low that the debris from wrecked German vehicles hit their planes.

One piece ripped the cowling of a plane piloted by Fright Lt. Daniel L. Staehle, Springfield (state not given) leaving him in a daze.

"All the way back," Shaehle related later, "Soape (Lt. Thomas R. Soape, Corsicana, Texas), kept talking to me and encouraging me. If he hadn't I would have gone to sleep. That is how I felt."

Son Born to The C. C. Woolseys On Wednesday, Aug. 24

Capt. and Mrs. C. C. Woolsey announce the arrival of a son, Claude Cardinal Woolsey, Jr., at the Navarro Clinic on Wednesday, August 24th.

Capt. Woolsey, who is now stationed in Washington, D. C., arrived in Corsicana on Thursday of last week.

The maternal grandparents of Claude Cardinal Woolsey, Jr., are Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rector, of this city.

prairie, told cheering Parisians: "I have come here to pay the tribute of the Allied forces to the indomitable spirit of Paris."

With him were Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley, commander of the U. S. 12th Army group; Lt. Gen. Joseph Pierre Koenig, commander of the French Forces of the Interior; Brig. Gen. Jacques LeClerc, commander of the French Second Armored Division; Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Tedder, deputy supreme commander; Maj. Gen. Leonard T. Gerow, Fifth U. S. Corps commander.

German planes had bombed Paris suburbs the night before, and early yesterday the skies were aglow from the light of fires. The death toll was placed at 110, with 719 persons injured.

When the raiders came over, people were still in the streets celebrating, despite the battle which broke out Saturday afternoon when roof top snipers started firing during the victory parade for Gen. De Gaulle.

Thousands of Parisians were thrown into panic as the parade broke up in wild flurries of gunfire along the four-mile line of march.

Several spectators were killed and dozens were wounded as the shooting spread, a short time after De Gaulle had sped along the parade route at a 40-mile an hour clip.

French Patriots in the parade fired at roof tops from which French Fascist militia had sniped at them. Soon thousands of men of the rench Forces of the Interior joined in the fighting, which extended rapidly throughout Paris.

First Lt. Fleming, Paratroop Plane Pilot, Decorated

First Lieut. Samuel Fleming, U. S. Army Ninth Air Force Troop Carrier Base, European theater of operations, has been awarded the Air Medal for participation in the invasion of France, according to information received here by his wife, Mrs. Martha Ann Fleming, the former Miss Martha Ann Waddell, of Corsicana.

Lieut. Fleming is the pilot of a paratroop-hauling, glider-towing C-47 and flew in a formation of 900 planes and gliders of the Ninth Troop Carrier Command, that struck the opening blows of the Allied European offensive, June 6. He was one of the first to be over the peninsula on D-Day, and it was his first time in combat. It was necessary to fly blind and on instruments.

In a press release from his headquarters, Lieut. Fleming was quoted as saying that after the gliders were released at the appointed site, his plane sped back toward the coast at tree-top level, encountering anti-aircraft fire. Scratches and other things showed the crew upon arrival at the home base that the anti-aircraft fire had struck the plane in several places.

"As we flew back over the channel we could see below us the Allied navies massed all along the beaches like one big traffic jam, waiting to discharge their tanks and troops. Above and all around us were Allied planes of all sizes and descriptions. I never in all my life have seen so many planes in the air at one time, they seemed to darken the sky in an endless stream, going to and from the peninsula," he stated.

Lieut. Fleming was connected with the Atlantic Refining Company of Philadelphia before entering the service. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fleming, reside in Philadelphia.

The officer graduated from Corsicana Feld primary combat pilot training with the class of 43-E. He is now stationed at an Italian base and participated in the attacks on Southern France in the past couple of weeks.

INCREASED CIVILIAN PRODUCTION DEPENDS ON SUPPLY WORKERS

Increased civilian production in Corsicana hinges on the supply of workers available for such production without interference with local and inter-regional labor recruiting efforts to staff war plants, W. B. Reedy, local U. S. employment service manager, said today. Under the WPB's reconversion program, the area representative must certify to the area production committee that sufficient surplus manpower is available in the area, over and above manpower needed for vital war industries, before a civilian plant will be permitted to go into production.

A total of 383 males contacted the USES offices in Corsicana last week and 48 of them were placed in war jobs, Reedy reported. Workers who are laid off war jobs can find employment in other war plants whose production schedules must be maintained, and until all war jobs are completely staffed and up to production schedules, no civilian construction or production can be authorized in the area.

Martha Frances Hay, Ensign George Keith Engaged To Be Wed

Ensign Keith received his B. S. Degree from the University of Texas where he was a member of Alpha Phi Omega and Tejas.

New Postal Cards Speed Up Mail To Far East P.O.W.

A postal card designed especially to speed mail to American prisoners of war in the Far East is now available to their relatives and friends through the Navarro Red Cross chapter, according to Mrs. A. E. Haslam, chairman of home service committee.

"The new card may be had free from the Red Cross here and sent without postage," said Mrs. Haslam.

"It has been designed to facilitate censorship, save weight and space in transportation and generally to speed up delivery of mail to the Far East."

Since Japan has refused to accept letters of more than 24 words for prisoners, she explained, the card has spaces limiting the message to that number. It may be used to communicate with either prisoners of war or civilian internees.

Mail to those detained in the Far East may now be sent by these three means: (1) the new postal card form, postage free, (2) ordinary letter paper and envelopes, as used in the past, postage free, or (3) air mail from recently made available at post offices, which requires a 6-cent air mail stamp. Use of this form assures air mail handling in the continental United States.

"The Red Cross particularly recommends the use of the postal card form," said Mrs. Haslam.

"Whichever means of communication is used, however, the Red Cross here will be glad to give every assistance to the senders so that they may be sure the mail is handled in accordance with the instructions of the provost marshal general."

Former Corsicana Girl Takes Vows Church Ceremony

Of interest to Corsicanans is the marriage of Miss Jo Peacock, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Allen A. Peacock of Temple, formerly of this city, to Dr. Lloyd K. Darwin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. New Books Added To Shelves Public Library Recently

The following new books have been added to the shelves of the Public Library during the past few weeks, and are now available for persual by Corsicana's connaisseurs of literature:

THE TIME FOR DECISION by Sumner Welles—a first-person record of the men and events that have shaped world history since 1918 set down by one of the few people in the world qualified to appraise them. Walter Trohan of the Chicago Tribune says of the Welles publication—"Without fear of contradiction it can be said that this is the most important American volume on war and peace to date."

ANNA AND THE KING OF SIAM by Margaret Landon — the story of the slender, hoop-skirted English governess who changed the destiny of an Oriental Empire. The book is highlighted with 40 illustrations by Margaret Ayer, and is described by Ernestine Evans of the New York Herald Tribune "as a pearl among books, a moving and hilarious memoir—a garland of bitter love stories, a pageant of rituals and cremation, a tangling of East and West that explodes in ridiculous circumstances, and lingers in lovely memorable turns of speech."

WOODROW WILSON AND THE LOST PEACE by Thomas A. Bailey—a keen evaluation of the part played by the United States in making the Treaty of Versailles, with particular attention to Wilson. "One of the most vigorous and convincing analyses of peace problems which has been offered," the says Boston Herald.

THE RED COCK CROWS by Frances Gaither—a superb story, irresistible in its dramatic intensity and mounting excitement. Mrs. Gaither's sympathetic and wholly unprejudiced portrayal of Scofield, the headman on the Dalton plantation, is one of the most masterly studies of the psychology of the Negro to appear in current literature

WAR BELOW ZERO by Col. Bernt Balcher, Major Corey Ford, and Major Oliver LaFarge—a story of secret war, waged in semi-darkness, north of the Arctic Circle on a battlefield perpetually locked under 10,000 feet of solid ice.

THE RAZOR'S EDGE by W. Somerset Maughan—in which artists, policemen, businessmen, yogis, dope, fields, aristocrats, bishops, decorators and farmers—people of all ranks and kinds leap from the printed page. The Razor's Edge is said to be an experience as well as an entertainment. It is now one of America' leading fiction best-sellers.

WEST POINT by E. D. J. Waugh—a story of U. S. Military Academy which rises from a Revolutionary Fortress and has taught American soldiers the art of victory.

TWENTIETH CENTURY TEXAS by Ralph W Steen—tells the story of economic and social progress of Texas of the twentieth century.

SIMONE by Lion Feuchtwanger—a novel of modern France—a great pageant—described as vital, timultuous and immense.

HUNDREDS CIVILIAN WOMEN WORKERS ARE NEEDED BY U. S. NAVY

A call to "come aboard" with the Navy is going out to all American women from Navy headquarters in Washington, D. C., where hundreds of civilian workers are needed to fight the war with pencil and typewriter. To reach women in this area who might otherwise miss such an opportunity Misses Lauraine Goreau and Doris V. Brown, Navy Department representatives, are in Corsicana for three days through August 30. At their temporary headquarters at the United States Employment Service, they will interview applicants, give civil service examinations and make on-the-spot appointments to the Navy Department.

Qualifications

Women answering the Navy's SOS for stenographers and typists must be at least 17 1-2 years of age and cannot be employed in essential industry at the present time. If a girl meets these qualifications she has only to pass a civil service test and a general physical examination to be eligible for the Navy job in the nation's capital.

Salaries range from $146 to $164 a month, depending upon experience. Navy positions are for the duration of the war and six months, and appointees are expected to remain for at least that length of time.

Transportation to Washington is paid by the Navy; meals are furnished en route. To calm the fears of applicants that they may have to pitch a tent on the banks of the Potomac to be sure of a home in Washington, the Navy guarantees a pre-inspected room to all new employees at moderate cost.

Planned Recreation

Parents need not fear that their daughter will be left to shift for herself in Washington, for the Navy Department has employee counselors whose job is to help each girl make the adjustment to a new way of life. Navy counselors help employees start out on the right foot, and find their place in the interesting world of Washington at war. Planned recreation programs for all Navy employees offer after-hour entertainment in addition to the many places to go and things to see in the capital.

According to Under Secretary of the Navy Ralph A. Bard, the war on the battlefront cannot be won without willing workers in key jobs on the home front. The Navy wants civilian workers to "come aboard" now.

TEXAS NAVAL AIR OFFICER AWARDED AIR MEDAL AND DFC

By NORMAN BELL

AN ALEUTIAN ISLAND BASE, Aug. 28—(AP)—Lt. (jg) Lewis A. "Pat" Patterson of Smiley, Tex., today had the Distinguished Flying Cross as well as the air medal to show for his probable record number of air missions over Japanese soil.

The boyish navy Ventura bomber pilot was presented the Flying Cross recently by Commodore Leslie E. Gehres, commander of fleet air wing four, acting for vice Admiral Frank Jack Fletcher, commander North Pacific.

Similar awards were presented to other Ventura pilots and squadron mates of Patterson.

All are veterans of the "Empire Express' which runs from an outer Aleutian base, across 800 miles of cold, open North Pacific, to the Japanese Kuriles.

Lieutenant Patterson has made the dangerous mission approximately 20 times. He was a student at Abilene Christian College in Texas when he entered the Navy.

The crosses were awarded to the flyers for daylight raids in June against Japanese air bases on Paramushiro and Shimushu Islands.

Lieutenant Patterson was given the air medal for locating and bombing previously undetected air field and shore installations on Paramushiro June 12—the day before the bombardment. The navy cross was for a daring daylight raid down the full length of Shimushu and Paramushiro June 14—one day after the bombardment.

Senate Ratification Of Colorado River Treaty Is Approved

DENVER, Aug. 28—(AP)—Senate ratification of the Colorado River treaty between the United States and Mexico would "stabilize the International situation and permit the fullest development of water resources of the western states," Henry C Vidal, consultant to the Colorado Water Conservation Board, declared at a meeting of water experts of six western states in Denver today.

Officials of Colorado, Arizona, Utah, Wyoming, Texas and New Mexico gathered to define the issues in what is expected to be a coming Senate fight over ratification of the treaty. The ratification will be strongly opposed by California, officials here said.

Today's opening session of the conference was limited to polling representatives of the six states with regard to support of the treaty. "We are sill all solid for the treaty," Clifford Stone, director of the Colorado Water Conservation Board, declared.

Experts attending the meeting include Frank C. Merriell, Colorado; Charles A. Carson, Arizona; Fred E. Wilson, New Mexico; L. C. Bishop, Wyoming; Grover A. Giles, attorney general for Utah; and A. L. Cramer, Texas.

Texas Man Makes Good

To Whom it May Concern:

It is a real plasure for me to recommend E. W. O'Daniel to anyone in need of an auctioneer. He graduated with honors from the Reppert School of Auctioneering.

He has the natural talents, pleasing personality, good voice, knows values, and how to conduct an auction sale. He is an untiring worker, and absolutely honest. He knows how to please both the buyer and seller and will prove a valuable auctioneer in any sale.

Any favors shown him will be appreciated by myself and a large number of friends.

Yours very truly,
REPPERT SCHOOL OF AUSTIONEERING.

defeated Paschall, 4-2, in the only race not resulting in ties. In the other races, each of the candidates were credited with three votes (ties) each.

P. M. Gladney, county democratic chairman, made his headquarters in the county clerk's office Saturday evening.

To Canvass Vote Saturday

The Navarro county Democratic executive committee will meet at the courthouse Saturday at 10 a. m. to canvass and declare the results of the run-off primary and to attend such other business that may be presented.

Grover Sellers outdistanced James E. Martin in the county for attorney general 2685 to 2539 while Gordon Simpson garnered 3179 votes as compared with 1947 for incumbent Richard Critz. Sellers is serving out the unexpired term of Gerald Mann, resigned, on appointment by Governor Coke R. Stevenson.

J. R. Donnell now has been elected to the Legislature from three districts in Texas—first serving from Bell county, then from the 60th. Flotorial district of Hill and Navarro counties, and now from the 58th. (Navarro county.)

hot, dry Kansas plains cold and wet are two adjectives usually as cut of place this time of year as a mountain yodeller any time of year.

Streams which in many a Kansas August won't run a cup full a month are gushing from bank to bank, with flood stages reported on the Kaw, the Blue, the Missouri.

But in Florida, in Southern Texas and on west and up the coast, it was weather pretty much as usual. (Exception: Denver's 8-inch hail storm (Saturday.) And things certainly were humming in Yuma, Ariz., the thermometer hit 113 there.

"Having decided to remain among you I have tried day by day to find the best way to serve the permanent interests of France loyally and withmout compromise.

"I had but one object—to protect you from the worst.

"All that I have done and all that I have accepted, consented to or submitted to, whether willingly or by force, has been solely for your welfare; because if I could not be your sword I wanted to be your shield."

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Hook were Dallas visitors Wednesday night and Thursday.
